

1 discussed fully by the fact that there are only 18 members
2 of the Commission present today as contrasted with 25
3 the last time, so that it is possible that if the numbers
4 happen to work out that way, you get a contrary result 5 without really having changed the opinions of any of the 6 members. I really don't know what to do about it except 7 to call it to your attention, except to observe that 8 unless you feel very strongly about it, a 3 to 2 action
9 by 25 out of 26-man Commission ought to be seriously
10 considered.

11 You ready for the question? All those in favor
12 of the motion, signify by a show of hands?

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Motion is lost 6 to 12.

14 Section 4.

15 DR. JENKINS: Where does this leave us with 16 Section 3?

17 THE CHAIRMAN: As it appears in the fifth
18 draft.

19 DR. BARD: Section 4 now reads as adopted at 20 the Easton meeting. There is a slight change as far as 21 the language is concerned, but I think that is too little
